Explanatory Notes on Assignments:
Class Participation (20%)
Class participation will be evaluated daily. It will reflect your daily preparation and active participation in class discussions. Your grade will largely depend on the amount of new vocabulary and grammar constructions that you use in your answers. If you are present but do not actively participate in class activities, your grade will be no higher than 60 out of 100. It is essential that students come to class well prepared and participate fully in class discussions. If you are late by more than 5 minutes or absent, you will receive 0 for your class participation.

Three or more unexcused absences from class will result in lowering of final grade. Students are responsible for the material missed with an excused or unexcused absence and are strongly encouraged to meet with the instructor as soon as possible.

Homework (15%): Blogs and discussions (5%) and vlogs (10%)

Homework will be assigned every class. It will include grammar and vocabulary exercises, and reading, listening and watching assignments. Your preparedness with these assignments will be reflected in your next class participation grade.

You will also receive short assignments to develop your presentational writing and speaking skills: blogs and discussions (5%) and vlogs (10%), respectively. Together they will count towards 15% of your final grade. You will post your blog entries on your class discussion boards on e-class, and upload video recorded vlog entries on e-class. Specifics about the assignment and grading rubrics will be given ahead of each blog/vlog assignment. The issues addressed in the entries may be discussed next day in class. Please note that homework is intended to enhance your learning of the new material. Make sure that what you submit reflects your absolute best.

Midterm exam (30%) cover the studied material. It will consist of the written (15%) and oral (15%) components. The written component will be administered on October 7, 2020 during regular class time. The oral component will be administered on October 9, 2020. A schedule with time slots for the oral exam will be provided separately. Make-ups are allowed only with prior notification. If you miss an exam for an unexcused reason, you will receive a zero.

Final project (5%). For your final project, you will need to prepare a 3-5 minute promotional video “Why study Ukrainian at UofA” (in Ukrainian). Your video should be uploaded on e-class by 11:59 pm November 27, 2020. You may also want to enter your video for a competition “Why study Ukrainian at UofA”. The winning video will be used to promote the Ukrainian program at UofA on social media and will earn extra 1% toward final grade.

Final examination (30%)
It will consist of the written (15%) and oral (15%) components, and will be cumulative. The oral component will be administered during the week of November 30-December 4, 2020. A schedule with time slots for the oral exam will be provided separately. The written component will be administered on December 11, 2020, 2:00pm.

Required Notes:
Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:
The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Language and Translation Courses:
Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student’s own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:
The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students, faculty and staff are able to work and study in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.
Sexual Violence Policy:
It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence

Territorial Statement:
“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:
Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:
Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course attendance will be taken at every class meeting. Unexcused absences will adversely affect the student’s grade. More than 5-minute tardiness is counted as an unexcused absence. Three or more unexcused absences from class will result in lowering of final grade.

Policy for Late Assignments:
Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension. Otherwise, assignments may be handed in with a 5% -per-day- penalty; over 7 of lateness assignments will NOT be accepted.
Disclaimer:
Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student’s level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/).
