Course Description, Objectives and Expected Learning Outcomes:

The Irish courses in MLCS are supported by the Ireland Canada University Foundation (ICUF), and offer the opportunity to discover the ancient Gaelic linguistic and cultural roots of Ireland, while at the same time getting to know the modern world of Irish speakers and the progressive new Ireland of today.

Successful students will be able to speak about themselves, others and the world around them in Irish, read and pronounce Irish words, phrases, poems and songs and will have gained an appreciation for the role of the Irish language in Ireland and globally in the past, present and future.

Course Format:

The objectives of this course will be learned from a combination of formal lectures, assigned readings and audiovisual materials all delivered in the form of remote learning until such time as it is possible to move the classes to in-person delivery. Students will be made aware of the eventual change to the mode of delivery in good time.

Texts:

No formal requirement. All requisite materials will be distributed in class via eClass, Google apps etc.

Components of Course Grade (see “Explanatory Notes”):

Participation/attendance	10%
Quizzes	20%
Tasks	20%
Oral assessment	20%
Written final assessment	30%

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

Participation/attendance 10%: The focus of this course will be on communication and comprehension and as such students are encouraged to participate actively in class with their camera on, ready to learn and contribute. Students will be made aware of upcoming assessments in good time and are expected to complete these assignments by the deadline unless exceptional circumstances apply.

Quizzes 20%: After each topic, or as deemed necessary, you will complete a quiz on eClass. The quizzes are designed to assess a variety of skills which are practiced during the course of study, including listening comprehension, reading comprehension, vocabulary, grammar structures, writing, and cultural information.

Tasks 20%: Tasks will be set twice during the course of the term (which may consist of oral presentations and/or written assignments) and will be worth 10% each. Specific information about each task will be provided in class as well as on eClass where you will submit those tasks.

Oral Assessment 20%: This oral assessment is designed to assess your communicative abilities in Irish. The assessment takes ca. 10 minutes and it will resemble the oral activities that you have done in class up to that point. You will receive details about signing up and preparing as we approach the assessment date. The oral assessment will be done individually and will be administered between Oct. 30 and Nov. 5, 2020.

Written Final Assessment 30%: The written final assessment is cumulative and will assess reading comprehension, vocabulary, grammar structures, writing, and familiarity with cultural topics. It will be administered during the final exam period

Required Notes:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:

The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Language and Translation Courses:

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student's own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour. Furthermore, students are advised that machine translation programmes e.g. Google Translate are very poor at producing accurate Irish and as such, use of such programmes will be very obvious to the instructor.

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students, faculty and staff are able to work and study in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Sexual Violence Policy:

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at <https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence>

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, up to three absences will be excused after which point 5% will be deducted from your attendance grade.

Policy for Late Assignments:

Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension just one time throughout the course with no penalty. However, if a second excuse will be granted for late assignments, half of the mark assigned for this particular work will be deducted. Otherwise, all assignments should be handed in on the stated deadline. Any assignment not handed-in in time or unexcused late assignments will not be given any marks. Late excuses will not be accepted for any reason.

Disclaimer:

Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

Grading:

Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student's level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (<https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/>). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:
