TENURE-TRACK APPOINTMENT

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA FACULTY OF NURSING

The Faculty of Nursing is seeking outstanding scholars for tenure-track positions. Specifically, we are looking for doctoral-prepared, career faculty members that bring expertise to research, teaching, and academic citizenship.

We welcome applications from all qualified persons. We encourage First Nations, Métis and Inuit persons; members of visible minority groups; persons with disabilities; persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity and expression; and all those who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas and the University to apply. In addition, we encourage applicants with experience in curriculum development.

LIVING IN EDMONTON

The City of Edmonton is a vibrant northern Canadian city, alive with energy and opportunity. Lose yourself in the Northern Lights, explore our 30 annual festivals, and experience the beauty of this Canadian treasure.

NORTH AMERICA'S LARGEST RIVER VALLEY

Edmonton's river valley boasts parks and trails spanning the North Saskatchewan River that winds through the heart of the city. The Edmonton River Valley is the largest urban park in North America, almost 22 times larger than New York City's Central Park. Over 150 km of trails provide endless opportunities to explore the great outdoors.

Often called the "Festival City," Edmonton is a global festival powerhouse with over 30 festivals throughout the year.

OUR COMMUNITY

The University of Alberta Faculty of Nursing is one of the largest nursing faculties in the country, and unique as the only Canadian member of the National Hartford Centers for Gerontological Nursing Excellence. We have more doctorally-prepared faculty members than any other school in the west.

As a trailblazer in Canadian nursing education, we implemented the first Master of Nursing program in Western Canada in 1975, and began the first fully-funded Nursing PhD program in Canada in 1991.

Join a team of researchers ranked number one in Canada for research reputation by MacLean's magazine in 2020 and number one in Canada for program reputation in 2021. Our world-leading Faculty to do cutting-edge work that's changing the face of global health.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

As a new faculty member, you will join one of the top nursing faculties globally. We are consistently ranked within the top two nursing programs in Canada and currently 14th globally (QS World University Rankings by Subject). As the largest nursing faculty in the country, we are one of only six in Canada to offer a full range of undergraduate and graduate degree programs. Our priorities include:

- Providing students with exceptional learning opportunities in undergraduate and graduate programs.
- Maintaining excellence in research through mentorship and support.
- Enhancing the integration of teaching, research and practice.
- Infusing global citizenship into all aspects of academic nursing.
- Fostering Equity, Diversity and Inclusivity (EDI) in teaching, research and practice.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Our Academic Faculty members are scholars active in teaching, research, and service. Incumbents are developing (in Assistant Professor positions) or have established (in Associate or Professor positions) programs of research, supervise graduate students, teach in both the graduate and undergraduate nursing programs, and contribute to Faculty, University, and community service.

Teaching (standard allocation of time is 40%)

- Participates in undergraduate and graduate teaching programs, including classroom teaching, and advising /supervising undergraduate honors and graduate students.

Research (standard allocation of time is 40%)

- Leads a program of research, participates in multidisciplinary research, and the dissemination of results.

Service (standard allocation of time is 20%)

- Provides service to the discipline of Nursing, participates in governance of the University and the Faculty, and disseminates knowledge to the broader arena by making available their expertise and knowledge of the discipline.

QUALIFICATIONS

As a qualified applicant, you hold a PhD, have an identified research focus and demonstrate commitment to teaching excellence. We require the following:

- PhD in Nursing (or a related discipline).
- Current registration or eligibility for registration as a nurse with the College and Association of Registered Nurses of Alberta.
- Evidence of an identified research focus and demonstrated potential for success in peer-reviewed grant applications.
- Commitment to teaching excellence and supervision of undergraduate honors students, graduate students and Post-Doctoral Fellows.

APPLICATION PROCESS

If interested, you are invited to submit a letter of interest outlining your research interests, teaching expertise, major contributions, a curriculum vitae, and the names of three referees.

Applications are submitted online via the University of Alberta Careers website: <https://www.careers.ualberta.ca/>

Online applications are accepted until midnight MST of the closing date. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
