Course Content/Caseload:

As per assigned facility/agency. By the end of the placement, student will be able to manage ~50% of the therapist's typical caseload in a timely, competent and safe manner with moderate to minimal supervision.

In this context, minimal supervision is the least amount of supervision. For example the supervising OT is not necessarily present when the task is being carried out, but is available to the student by communication technology (phone, email, etc) or has provided an alternate plan in case of doubt or perceived risk. Maximum supervision is when the supervising OT or designate is present within the environment when a task is being carried out. Moderate supervision is the continuum between these two extremes.

Evaluation:

Students are evaluated by their primary clinical educator(s) at midterm (Week 4) and final (Week 7) using the Competency Based Fieldwork Evaluation for Occupational Therapists (CBFE) and the Profession Behaviour Rubric (PBR) (© DalU). At final, the clinical educator(s) records a grade recommendation in the CBFE based on their rating of the student's performance in each of the 7 practice competencies (listed above) and overall. The course instructor reviews the evaluation (performance ratings and comments) and assigns a grade of Credit or Non-Credit.

A Checklist for Fieldwork Evaluation & Documentation is provided to guide the evaluation process.

Required Textbooks/Materials/Resources:

Bossers, A., Miller, L., Polatajko, H., & Hartley, M. (2008). Competency Based Fieldwork Evaluation for Occupational Therapists. Nelson Education Ltd: Toronto.

Students are also required to familiarize themselves with the OT Fieldwork Handbook. Available on eClass and online.

Reference Material:

Provided by the assigned facility/agency and Year 1 & 2 textbooks and resources.

Student Accommodation/Illness:

Any request for accommodation must be submitted in writing at the beginning of the course with a letter from Accessibility Resources (AR) that identifies the student's specific accommodation needs. This information should address how this disability or need impacts the student's ability to participate in the normal requirements of the course. Where a student is not yet registered with AR, medical or other documentation must be provided at the beginning of the course. Refer to the Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine Accommodation document for specific information.

Protection of Privacy:

Personal information is collected under the authority of Section 33 (c) of the Alberta Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and will be protected under Part 2 of that Act and in accordance with applicable University policies (UAPPOL). It will be used for the purpose of ensuring fair and equitable access to course content for students in both the Calgary and Edmonton sites within the Occupational Therapy program of the University of Alberta. Direct any questions about this collection to: 2-64 Corbett Hall at 780-492-2499.

“Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).” Please be aware that classes may be recorded by the instructor for potential distribution among students and instructors in both the Calgary and Edmonton sites.

Copyright and Use of Materials:

Course content and materials provided during class or uploaded on eClass page are in pursuant to the University of Alberta Fair Dealing Guidelines for use by students enrolled in the course. Any reproduction or other use of course material is strictly prohibited.

It is important for students to note that:

Learning is a partnership between the student and the facilitator (professor, instructor, teaching assistant, preceptor, personal advisor, etc). Learning opportunities have been designed and resource materials have been identified to help you achieve the course objectives and outcomes. Not all material will be covered in class. Reading, exercises, and other forms of directed and self-directed study will be required to achieve depth of learning. It is the student's responsibility to use these opportunities and material and ensure that (s)he can achieve the stated objectives and specific occupational therapy outcomes. This is an essential component of the accountability that is associated with becoming a professional.

“Policy about course outlines can be found in Course Requirements, Evaluation Procedures and Grading of the University Calendar.”

“The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour which could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.”

If applicable:

Group work- is an essential part of the course and students are expected to fully participate in each group activity. How you participate is one indicator of your professional conduct and therefore assignments requiring group work incorporate peer evaluation and academic consequences for not participating fully as outlined in the group work policy. Please read carefully. DO NOT wait until an assignment is due to take action as outlined in the policy. DO contact your course instructor about concerns as soon as possible.
