

Holidays

When in clinical placements, students are allowed to take only those holidays allowed for employees in the clinical facility in which they are practicing. Students in clinical practice will not be given time off for the University Reading Week or other holidays that do not coincide with the clinical facility's approved holidays.