The Parties recognize that the PDF Employee is primarily involved in research and scholarly activity. - 8.04 With the prior agreement of the Supervisor, a PDF Employee may undertake teaching responsibilities up to a maximum of one full course per term, which will be considered a distinct employment relationship and governed under a separate employment contract. ## ARTICLE 9: TERMINATION

- 9.01 Resignation: A PDF Employee will provide the Employer with two calendar weeks notice of resignation.

At the conclusion of this evaluation, the Supervisor should consider whether an increase to the Employee's wage is warranted, however, any wage increase is at the sole discretion of the Supervisor. The decision to grant or withhold a wage increase will not be subject to the Dispute Resolution Procedure unless the decision was arbitrary, discriminatory or made in bad faith.
- 10.03 Nearing the conclusion of a PDF Employee's appointment an additional meeting and final evaluation will be conducted if requested by the PDF Employee.
- 10.04 The results of any evaluation will be shared with the PDF Employee and discussed between the PDF Employee and their Supervisor. Any documented performance feedback will be included in the PDF Employee's Personnel File. A PDF Employee will be entitled to append their comments to any evaluation.

- 11.02 The Parties agree that PDF Employees are developing their potential as independent scholars. Their Supervisors are responsible for providing them with appropriate measures of intellectual independence and academic freedom. As members of the academic community, PDF Employees have the right to learn, to carry out research, to publish, to comment, to criticize, to examine, to question, to acquire and disseminate knowledge, to create, and to perform; all of these without deference to prescribed doctrine insofar as the PDF Employee abides by the duties and responsibilities of their appointment(s).

When exercising academic freedom in accordance with this Article, employees are entitled to exercise or assert their rights of academic freedom without reprisal from their supervisor.
- 11.05 In their capacity as researchers and scholars, PDF Employees shall not claim to speak on behalf of the University unless specifically authorized to do so. If there is likely to be

The participants will engage in an open, fair and balanced discussion of the issues, interests, options and potential solutions to the grievance. Additional meetings may be convened by the Provost (or designee) as required.

17.03.06 The Provost (or designee) will provide a written response to the grievance within 20 work days of the final meeting.

17.03.07 Discussions, correspondence and agreements reached at this stage are confidential and without prejudice to the legal or contractual rights of the parties, and any agreements shall be confirmed in writing.

17.03.08 If the decision of the Provost (or designee) fails to resolve the grievance, the PDFA may advance the grievance to arbitration in accordance with Article 18 by providing the Provost (or designee) with written notice within 30 days following receipt of the Provost's (or designee) decision/response to the grievance.

17.03.09 The Provost may file grievances on behalf of the Board. Such grievances will be submitted to the PDFA President (or designee) and processed in accordance with 18.03. The PDFA President will perform the equivalent role of the Provost in reviewing and responding to such grievances.

- 17.04.03 Either Party may request an extension of the time limits, provided that such extension is requested prior to the expiry of the time allowed. Where such extension is requested, it will not be unreasonably denied.

17.05. Mediation

- 17.05.01 Mediation is a process by which the Parties come together for open communication of their differences, assisted by a trained mediator, with the intention of reaching a mutual solution for the problem.
- 17.05.02 Upon mutual agreement of the PDFA and the Provost (or designee) the parties may agree to mediate the grievance at any point of the grievance process.
- 17.05.03 The matters discussed in mediation are kept confidential and cannot subsequently be used by one Party against the other if mutual agreement is not reached. The discussions that take place during mediation are confidential and private; and information shared during the mediation process cannot be used against either Party after mediation has concluded, regardless of the outcome.
- 17.05.04 Any agreement reached by the Parties during the mediation will be written down and will not create any precedent for future grievances or disputes.

18.01 Grievance Arbitration

- 18.01.01 A matter referred to arbitration under this Article shall be heard by a single arbitrator except where the Board and the Association agree to refer the matter to a three-person arbitration panel. Hereinafter all references to arbitrator shall be deemed to include an arbitration panel.
- 18.01.02 If a grievance is initiated by the PDFA, is properly considered in accordance with Article 17 and is not resolved, the PDFA will have sole authority to decide whether to refer the grievance to arbitration on behalf of the PDFA or one or more PDF Employees.
- 18.01.03 If a grievance is initiated by the Provost, is properly considered in accordance with Article 17 and is not resolved, the Provost may refer the unresolved grievance to arbitration on behalf of the Board.

18.02 Arbitration Panel

- 18.02.01
  - a) In the case of a single arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be appointed by agreement of the Provost and the PDFA President.
  - b) In the case of a three-person arbitration panel, each party will select its nominee to the binding arbitration panel and will notify the other of its nominee within 10 work days of receipt of a referral to arbitration. The Provost and the PDFA President will jointly select a third person to serve as chair.
  - c) If an agreement cannot be reached in either a) or b), either party may apply to the Chair of the Alberta Labour Relations Board for the appointment of the arbitrator/chair.
- 18.02.02 The parties may agree in writing to appoint one person to serve as an arbitration panel as an alternative to a three-person panel.
- 18.02.03 The arbitration panel will review submissions, conduct hearings and render a decision that is final and binding on the parties.
- 18.02.04 An arbitration panel constituted to resolve a grievance will not by its decision amend the terms of the Agreement.
- 18.02.05 An arbitration panel constituted to resolve a collective bargaining dispute will not by its decision amend terms of the Agreement beyond the items referred to it by the parties for resolution.
- 18.02.06 Hearings before the arbitration panel are private and confidential.

- 18.02.07 No person will be appointed as an arbitrator if the person is directly affected by the dispute, or if that person has been involved in an attempt to settle the dispute.
- 18.02.08 The arbitrator will confine their decision to the grievance submitted.
- 18.02.09 The arbitrator will not substitute their judgment for that of the Employer, or any officer of the University acting on behalf of the Employer, where the exercise of such judgment is not specifically limited by the terms of this Agreement.
- 18.02.10 When dealing with grievances concerning disciplinary action, if the arbitrator determines that sufficient grounds for discipline exist, the arbitrator may substitute some lesser disciplinary action specified in Article 16 that the arbitrator deems just and reasonable in the circumstances.
- 18.02.11 The arbitration panel will not be bound by rules of evidence. Unless limited by this Agreement, the panel may establish procedures for the orderly conduct of the arbitration. Procedural rulings may be made by the panel chair but are subject to reversal by a majority vote of the arbitration panel.
- 18.02.12 The decision of the majority of members of the three-person arbitration panel will be the decision of the panel. If no majority exists, the decision of the chair will be the decision of the panel.
- 18.02.13 The arbitration panel will hear the matters before it within 20 work days of its formation and render its decision no later than 20 work days following the final presentations by the parties.
- 18.02.14 The costs of the arbitration panel chair will be shared equally by the parties.
- 18.03 Time limits may be altered by mutual agreement of the parties.

- 19.02 In the event that any statute passed by the Government of Canada or Alberta renders null and void, or alters any provision of this Agreement, the Parties agree to address the effect of such change via a Letter of Understanding.

The notice will include the names of the bargaining team members. The other party will acknowledge receipt of the notice within 10 work days, including the names of their bargaining team.

- (c) Notice for the purpose of this Agreement will be addressed in the case of the Employer, (to the Provost), or in the case of the Union, to the Vice-President (Internal) of the Union.

Prior to the meeting to exchange written proposals, the chairs of the negotiating teams will meet to discuss and confirm procedures for upcoming negotiations, including the format of proposals, the scheduling of negotiating sessions, the collection and exchange of relevant information, and other procedural matters the chairs believe are needed to facilitate effective, efficient and constructive bargaining.

- (d) At the first meeting to begin negotiations, between the parties following such notice, the parties will simultaneously exchange their respective total proposal, whereupon neither party will table any further new and unrelated proposal except by mutual agreement.   - 21.06 A Memorandum of Settlement concluded by the negotiating teams will be submitted to the Board and the postdoctoral fellows employees for ratification.

21.07 If a settlement is reached but not ratified by one or both parties, collective bargaining shall resume in an effort to achieve a settlement of unresolved bargaining issues. In such case, the parties shall continue to bargain collectively in good faith and make every reasonable effort to enter into a collective agreement.

APPENDIX A

Letter of Understanding Between
The University of Alberta (U of A)
and the
Post - Doctoral Fellows Association (PDFA)
Trainees and Guests

The parties have agreed to a joint committee (hereinafter referred to as the committee) to meet to make a recommendation to the parties regarding the scope of the Collective Agreement, specifically to address the extent, if any, of the inclusion of PDF Trainees and PDF Guests as part of Collective Agreement. Their inclusion in the agreement would be subject to ratification by both parties.

The committee shall have two voting representatives from each party. Any resource members shall not have voting privileges. Dates and times of the meetings will be arranged by the committee members.

The committee shall hold its first meeting within six weeks of the date of ratification of the collective agreement. Thereafter, the committee shall meet monthly until such time as an agreed upon recommendation has been completed.

Should the committee be unable to reach an agreement within one calendar year of the date of the first meeting, or an impasse is declared prior to one year, the parties will submit their positions to the Alberta Labour Relations Board for a determination ruling on whether PDF Trainees and PDF Guests are members of the bargaining unit.
