UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSORS EMERITI

AN INVITATION
ABOUT THE ASSOCIATION

The Association of Professors Emeriti (APE) was established in 1986.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Any retired professor from the University of Alberta who has been granted the title of Professor Emeritus is eligible to join the Association. Associate membership is available to retired APOs, FSOs, and professional librarians as well as retired teaching staff without Emeritus status. Spouses/companions of members are welcome to attend all Association activities. In recent times, the membership of APE has been in excess of 100 retired individuals.

WHAT GOES ON IN APE?

Aside from the good fellowship one finds in associating with one’s retired colleagues, the primary activities of members are found in the operation of Special Interest Groups which meet monthly. During the year from Fall to Spring, the active groups are Current Affairs, Arts, Travel, and Book Club. The Dining Out group meets monthly year round, with members taking turns at organizing a dinner at a favourite restaurant. New interest groups are formed when there is sufficient interest among the members.

Each month, from Fall through Spring, there is a monthly “Lunch With....” presentation at the Faculty Club featuring an invited speaker talking on any one of a range of stimulating topics. Then, in mid December APE organizes its Annual Christmas Brunch at the Faculty Club which brings together the membership in an often noisy and good-humoured meeting of minds.

WHAT ELSE DO WE OFFER TO OUR MEMBERS?

We occupy a good-sized well equipped house on 89th Avenue in the Garneau area, where interest groups hold their meetings. The Executive has their monthly meeting at Emeritus House and twice a week the Association’s Office Assistant is on site helping to satisfy Members’ communications needs.

Members are informed of the Association’s activities through a weekly Newsletter sent as E-mail.

You will also receive Epilogue, the Association’s quarterly newsletter, which describes upcoming events and contains articles on a variety of topics of general interest.

The Association has a web page where information on upcoming activities can be accessed at:
