Graduate Status Instructions

Use this page to update your intention to attend the Convocation ceremony by selecting either "Yes" or "No". After selecting one of these options you may return to this page and change your intention to attend if your plans change.

If you plan to attend your Convocation ceremony in June 2011, you may reserve your academic apparel online. This service will be available in the spring. Please click the Apparel Reservation link at the bottom of the page after saving the information you entered here.

Only students who have successfully completed all program requirements (course work, practicums, internships, etc.) are eligible to attend the Convocation ceremonies. If you have questions about your graduation status, please contact your faculty.

Only those majors, minors, routes, cooperative programs, specializations and departments selected by your faculty to print on your parchment will be displayed on this page. Academic honors such as 'With Distinction' and 'First Class Honors' will be updated by your faculty upon final review of your program requirements and grades, and will be printed on your parchment if applicable.

Use this page also to update your hometown information for the Convocation program. Hometown information will not be printed on your degree parchment. If your hometown is:
-outside of Canada, only the country will be printed
-in Canada but outside of Alberta, only the province will be printed
-in Alberta, only the town or city will be printed

Your Parchment Name is the name that will be printed on your degree parchment. Your parchment should be printed in your full legal name and should match the name that is on your student record. If the name that appears in the Parchment Name field is not your full legal name, please submit a Change of Name form to the Registrar's Office at least one month before your Convocation ceremony. Note: Initials, nicknames, suffixes (eg. Jr.), etc. will not be printed on your parchment, even if they appear on this page.

If you have questions about the spelling of your name for your parchment please contact the Academic Awards and Ceremonies Office at 492-1875.

For information about the Convocation ceremonies please click the Ceremony Information link at the bottom of the page.
