Chaire de recherche du Canada Niveau II en Rapports relationnels Métis, pédagogie de la terre et bien-être

Campus Saint-Jean

Competition No. - A108537750

Closing Date - Jan 25, 2019

Faculté Saint-Jean, Université de l'Alberta

Chaire de recherche du Canada Niveau II en Rapports relationnels Métis, pédagogie de la terre et bien-être

EN FRANÇAIS

La Faculté Saint-Jean est à la recherche d'un candidat pour la Chaire de recherche du Canada de niveau II en : Rapports relationnels Métis, pédagogie de la terre et bien-être, pour appuyer ses efforts visant à mieux comprendre et à reconnaître la complexité des inégalités de bien-être chez les communautés minoritaires métisses et francophones de l'Ouest canadien. C'est pourquoi la recherche explorera et priorisera les connaissances, les enseignements et les récits des femmes métisses en matière de pédagogie de la terre afin de soutenir le bien-être de la communauté, de la famille et du terroir. La recherche développée contribuera à l'avancement des stratégies/politiques de bien-être en matière d'équité. Le travail éclairera la recherche qui reconnaît que les relations et les responsabilités foncières sont un facteur clé dans le soutien du bien-être de la pédagogie de la terre et des pratiques de recherche significatives axées sur la communauté.

Le candidat retenu devra faire preuve d'excellence en recherche et en enseignement sur les autochtones - Premières nations, Inuits et Métis - ayant un profil solide en sciences sociales, en sciences humaines, en éducation et en sciences de la santé. Le candidat retenu démontrera également l'excellence en recherche par la diffusion de la recherche qui pourrait inclure des publications évaluées par des pairs et des projets de recherche traitant de l'engagement de la communauté, le développement communautaire ou d'autres résultats appliqués, des expositions et des travaux de préservation, ainsi que des antécédents en matière d'obtention de subventions de recherche. La preuve de l'excellence en l'enseignement peut être démontrée au moyen d'un dossier d'enseignement. Le candidat retenu aura démontré sa capacité à établir des partenariats avec les communautés autochtones dans son domaine de recherche. On s'attend à ce qu'ils rendent service au corps professoral, à l'université et à la communauté.

Le candidat retenu occupera un poste menant à la permanence à la Faculté Saint-Jean de l'Université de l'Alberta et aura des publications dans des revues et/ou des expositions de grande qualité ainsi que des travaux de préservation qui lui permettra d'obtenir des fonds de recherche externes et d'être efficace dans l'enseignement bilingue (français et anglais) au niveau universitaire.

Les chaires de niveau II sont destinées aux nouveaux chercheurs exceptionnels (c.-à-d. que les candidats doivent avoir été des chercheurs actifs dans leur domaine pendant moins de 10 ans au moment de la mise en candidature). Les candidats qui ont obtenu leur diplôme il y a plus de 10 ans (et où il existe des interruptions de carrière, comme un congé de maternité, un congé parental ou un congé de maladie prolongé, une formation clinique, etc.) peuvent faire évaluer leur admissibilité à une chaire de niveau II à travers le processus du programme de justification de niveau 2. Veuillez communiquer avec le bureau des subventions de recherche pour obtenir de plus amples renseignements.

L'Université reconnaît l'impact légitime que les congés (congés parentaux, congés pour maladie, par exemple) peuvent avoir sur les résultats de recherche d'un candidat et que ces congés seront soigneusement pris en compte lors du processus d'évaluation.

La date de début prévue est le 1er octobre 2019. Veuillez remplir le questionnaire suivant dans le cadre du processus de mise en candidature: Questionnaire

Les candidats doivent envoyer une lettre d'intérêt, un curriculum vitae, les noms de trois répondants et un programme de recherche de 3 à 5 pages à :

Pierre-Yves Mocquais, PhD
Doyen, Faculté Saint-Jean
Université de l'Alberta
Courriel : rh.csj@ualberta.ca

Date limite : Le 25 janvier 2019

Les candidats qui ont besoin d'une entente d'accessibilité pour leur entrevue ou leurs rencontres de recrutement subséquentes peuvent communiquer avec Catherine Anley (conseillère principale, Équité, diversité et inclusion) à catherine.anley@ualberta.ca ou au 780.492.3020 pour prendre les arrangements nécessaires.

L'Université de l'Alberta encourage les candidatures de toute personne qualifiée; cependant, la priorité sera accordée aux citoyen(ne)s canadien(ne)s et aux résident(e)s permanent(e)s. L'Université de l'Alberta embauche selon le mérite. Nous sommes engagés au principe d'équité en matière d'emploi. Nous favorisons la diversité et encourageons les candidatures de toute personne qualifiée, femmes et hommes, y compris les personnes handicapées, les membres des minorités visibles et les autochtones.

Canada Research Chair Tier 2 in Metis Kinship and Land-based Wellness

Faculté Saint-Jean is seeking a candidate for the Canada Research Chair Tier II in: Metis Kinship and land-based wellness, in support of its efforts to better understand and acknowledge the complexity of wellness inequities among Metis and Francophone minority communities in Western Canada. Given this, the research will explore and prioritize Metis women's kinship knowledge, teachings and stories to support community, family and land wellness. The research developed will contribute to the advancement of wellness strategies/policies on equity. The work will inform research that acknowledges that land relationships and responsibilities are a key factor in supporting kinship wellness and meaningful community-centered research practices.

The successful candidate will demonstrate evidence of excellence in both research and teaching informed by Indigenous - First Nations, Inuit and Metis - scholars with strong profiles in social sciences, humanities, education and health sciences. The successful candidate will also demonstrate research excellence through research dissemination that might include peer-reviewed publications and community engaged research projects, community development or other applied outcomes, exhibitions and curatorial work, and a track record of securing research grants. Evidence of excellence in teaching may be demonstrated via a teaching dossier. The successful candidate will have a demonstrated ability to develop partnerships with Indigenous communities in their field of research. Service to the faculty, University and community will be expected.

The selected candidate will hold a tenure-track appointment at Faculté Saint-Jean of the University of Alberta and presents record of publications in high quality journals and/or exhibitions and curatorial work, securing external research funding, and effectiveness in bilingual (French and English) teaching at the university level.

Tier 2 Chairs are intended for exceptional emerging scholars (i.e., candidates must have been an active researcher in their field for fewer than 10 years at the time of nomination). Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (and where career breaks exist, such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave, clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier II Chair assessed through the program's Tier 2 justification process. Please contact the research grants office for more information. The University recognizes the legitimate impact that leaves (e.g., parental leave, leave due to illness) can have on a candidate's record of research achievement and that these leaves will be taken into careful consideration during the assessment process.

The anticipated start date is October 1, 2019. Please complete the following questionnaire as part of the application process: Questionnaire.

Applicants should send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, names of three references, and a 3-5-page research program to:

Pierre-Yves Mocquais, PhD
Dean, Faculté Saint-Jean
University of Alberta
Courriel : rh.csj@ualberta.ca

Deadline: January 25, 2019

Applicants whom require an accessibility arrangement for their interview and/or subsequent recruitment meetings can contact Catherine Anley (Senior Consultant Equity, Diversity and Inclusion) at catherine.anley@ualberta.ca or 780.492.3020 to arrange appropriate accommodations.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. If suitable Canadian citizens or permanent residents cannot be found, other individuals will be considered.

The University of Alberta is committed to an equitable, diverse, and inclusive workforce. We welcome applications from all qualified persons. We encourage women; First Nations, Métis and Inuit persons; members of visible minority groups; persons with disabilities; persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity and expression; and all those who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas and the University to apply.

Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC)

Dean Of Arts

Competition No. - A107338201

Closing Date - Mar 20, 2019

The Faculty of Arts at the University of Alberta invites applications for a Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC) in a humanities, fine arts, or social science discipline that is relevant to at least one Department in the Faculty. Tier 2 Chairs, tenable for five years and renewable once, are for exceptional emerging researchers, acknowledged by their peers as having the potential to lead in their field. This opportunity is open only to current University of Alberta employees.

The successful candidate will:

- Be an outstanding scholar whose exceptional track record of research and/or creative outputs is serving to establish them as a leader in their field.
- Have demonstrated the potential to achieve international recognition in their fields in the next five to ten years.
- Be a builder with a commitment to leading research collaborations and an emerging reputation for attracting and mentoring graduate students.
- Be committed to impactful research with real potential to benefit relevant scholarly communities and society.
- Have an established track record of obtaining external research grants
- Be prepared to develop an application that articulates an original and ground-breaking program of future research.

Responsibilities will include undergraduate and graduate teaching, graduate supervision and normal administrative service, as well as maintaining an original and innovative research program. The teaching load for a Canada Research Chair will be two one-term courses per year instead of the four one-term courses per year for regular faculty. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Once the Canada Research Chair commences, the Chairholder will receive a research allowance and supports from the Faculty and have access to a supplement that may be taken as a taxable salary or tax-free research grant, or a combination thereof.

Tier 2 CRCs are intended for exceptional emerging researchers (i.e., candidates must have been an active researcher in their field for fewer than 10 years at the time of nomination). Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (and where career breaks exist, such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave, clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier 2 Chair assessed through the program's Tier 2 justification process. Please consult the University of Alberta CRC Coordinator for more information. Full program information, including details on eligibility criteria, can be found on the Canada Research Chairs website: <http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/home-accueil-eng.aspx> .

The University recognizes the legitimate impact that leaves (e.g., parental leave, leave due to illness) can have on a candidate's record of research and achievement and commits that these leaves will be taken into careful consideration during the assessment process.

In accordance with the CRC Program's Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Practices (see below) and the University of Alberta's related Action Plan (also see below), applications are particularly encouraged from women, persons with disabilities, Indigenous Peoples, and visible minorities.

CRC Program's EDI Practices: <http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/program-programme/equity-equite/index-eng.aspx>

UAlberta EDI Action Plan: <https://www.ualberta.ca/research/services/funding-opportunities/canada-research-chairs/public-accountability>

The successful applicant will maintain an appointment as a regular senior faculty member and will be nominated by the University for a Canada Research Chair. All CRC nominations are subject to approval by UAlberta's President's Advisory Committee for Senior Academic Appointments, and University nominations are subject to the approval of the Canada Research Chair Program. Please consult the Canada Research Chairs website for full program information, including further details on eligibility criteria.

The Faculty will work with the successful candidate to complete their CRC application. Ideally, a full draft will be ready for internal review by August 15, with the final application submitted to the CRC Program in mid-October, 2019. Once approved by the CRC Program, the new Chairholder is likely to take up their CRC in 2020.

For questions related to this position, the Canada Research Chair (CRC) selection process, or issues regarding institutional accommodation policies, please contact Dr. Steve Patten, Associate Dean (Research), at resarts@ualberta.ca.

To apply, applicants must submit the following through UAlberta's online application system:

- A letter describing their interest in the position and their qualifications
- An outline of their research plans as the holder of a Tier 2 CRC
- A full Curriculum Vitae
- The names of three potential referees

Applicants must also complete the following questionnaire: Questionnaire Link

Applicants whom require an accessibility arrangement for their interview and/or subsequent recruitment meetings can contact Catherine Anley (Senior Consultant Equity, Diversity and Inclusion) at catherine.anley@ualberta.ca or 780.492.3020 to arrange appropriate accommodations.

Tier 1 and Tier 2 Canada Research Chairs

Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry - University of Alberta

Competition No. - A104438623

Closing Date - May 03, 2019

This opportunity is open only to current employees of the Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry at the University of Alberta or those who have accepted a full-time tenure-track faculty position at the university not later than July 1, 2019.

The Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry (FoMD) at the University of Alberta (UA) is inviting nominations for Tier 1 and Tier 2 Canada Research Chairs (CRC).

Tier 1 CRCs are for outstanding researchers acknowledged by their peers as world leaders in their fields. Nominees must be full professors or associate professors who are expected to be promoted to full professor within one or two years of the nomination (i.e. October 2019).

Tier 2 CRCs are intended for exceptional emerging scholars (i.e. candidates must have been an active researcher in their field for fewer than 10 years at the time of nomination). Tier 2 applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (e.g. where career breaks exist such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave; clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier 2 chair assessed through the program's Tier 2 justification process. Please contact the Research Services Office (Glen Thomas, UA CRC Coordinator and Advisor; gpthomas@ualberta.ca) for more information.

Please consult the CRC website for full program information, including further details on eligibility criteria (www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca). The University of Alberta recognizes the legitimate impact that leaves (e.g. parental leave, leave due to illness) can have on a candidate's record of research achievement and these leaves will be taken into careful consideration during the assessment process.

Candidates are not limited to a specific area of research. However, the proposed research program is to be in alignment with the UA's strategic research plan and the FoMD's strategic plan and recognized areas of research strength and priority. Detailed information on CRCs at the University of Alberta is available at www.ualberta.ca/research/services/funding-opportunities/canada-research-chairs. Detailed information on FoMD is available at www.ualberta.ca/medicine.

The FoMD vice-dean, research is leading this search. A sub-committee of the Faculty Research Committee, chaired by the vice-dean, will review the submissions and make its nomination recommendations to the FoMD dean. Additional members from FoMD, the UA and potentially external to the university will likely be added to this committee. The committee will be guided by the UA's Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Public Action Plan. The successful applicants will be nominated for a CRC. Nominations are subject to review by the CRC Secretariat, and appointment as a CRC is conditional upon its approval.

Questions can be directed to Dr. Christopher Power (Vice-Dean, Research; cp9@ualberta.ca) or Mark Taylor (FoMD Senior Director of Research; mtaylor4@ualberta.ca). General questions on the CRC program can be forwarded to Glen Thomas (UA CRC Coordinator and Advisor; gpthomas@ualberta.ca).

How to Apply

Please provide the following by Friday, May 3, 2019 in electronic format (PDF preferred):

1. Complete the following questionnaire (HRS will add link).
2. Your CV in Common CV format. The CIHR Academic format is preferred.
3. A personal statement (two pages maximum) of why you feel that you that you meet the expectations of a CRC. Please address the specific requirements of the CRC level to which you are applying (i.e. Tier 1 or Tier 2) and do not simply repeat what is in your CV. A general description of your research activities for the next 3-5 years is to be included as part of this statement.
4. For endowed research chairs only (one page maximum): why a CRC would be of benefit to you and how the support from your endowed research chair has or will support the research activities of other FoMD faculty members.

The final deadline for submission will be October 23, 2019 with an internal UA deadline of August 15, 2019. Approved applicants will be required to commit a significant amount of time to work on their submission.

Applicants whom require an accessibility arrangement for their interview and/or subsequent recruitment meetings can contact Catherine Anley (Senior Consultant Equity, Diversity and Inclusion) at catherine.anley@ualberta.ca or 780.492.3020 to arrange appropriate accommodations.

Tier 1 Canada Research Chair in Entrepreneurship, Gender and Family Business

Alberta School of Business

Competition No. - A103039014

Closing Date - Jun 27, 2019

The Alberta School of Business invites nominations for a Tier 1 Canada Research Chair (CRC). Consistent with the CRC Program's Equity, Diversity and Inclusion ("EDI") Practices (<http://www.chairs-chaires.gc.ca/programprogramme/equity-equite/index-eng.aspx>) and the University of Alberta's EDI Action Plan (<https://www.ualberta.ca/research/services/fundingopportunities/canada-research-chairs/public-accountability>), this call is limited to current (as of May 1, 2019) full-time female faculty members in the Alberta School of Business.

We are seeking a candidate to fulfil a CRC Tier 1 position in Entrepreneurship, Gender, and Family Business at the Full Professor level to meet the growing needs of our research-intensive mission and our undergraduate and graduate programs. Applications are invited from candidates with expertise at the intersection of entrepreneurship, gender studies, and family business.

The Alberta School of Business requires that the successful candidate hold a PhD in a relevant discipline (e.g., sociology, organizational behavior) and that she must have a demonstrated commitment to excellence and a strong publication record in respected academic journals, such as Academy of Management Journal, Administrative Sciences Quarterly, Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice, and Organization Science. It is expected that the successful candidate is able to develop and sustain a viable and productive research program. The Alberta School of Business strives to create a vibrant, supportive and collegial research culture. We envision the Chair will uniquely contribute to the vibrant intellectual life of the School, and will work effectively within a multi-disciplinary community of researchers who vary with respect to theoretical orientations and levels of analysis. The Alberta School of Business has an energetic PhD program therefore; the successful candidate will be expected to play an active role in its continuing success and development.

Tier 1 CRCs are intended for exceptional established researchers, acknowledged by their peers as leading in their field. They are tenable for seven years and are renewable once. Tier 2 Canada Research Chair in Neuroscience of Literacy

Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine

Competition No. - A108839135

Closing Date - Jun 28, 2019

The Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine at the University of Alberta invites internal applications from current members of the Faculty for a Tier 2 NSERC Canada Research Chair (CRC) in the area of Neuroscience of Literacy. This competition is restricted to current full-time tenure-track members of the Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine.

Consistent with the CRC Program's Equity, Diversity and Inclusion ("EDI") Practices (<http://www.chairs-chaires.gc.ca/programprogramme/equity-equite/index-eng.aspx>) and the University of Alberta's EDI Action Plan (<https://www.ualberta.ca/research/services/fundingopportunities/canada-research-chairs/public-accountability>), applications are particularly encouraged from women, persons with disabilities, Indigenous Peoples, and visible minorities. Preference will be given in this competition to applications from persons with disabilities.

The successful candidate must have a PhD in Rehabilitation Sciences or a related field. Nominees must be Assistant or Associate Professors. The successful candidate will be expected to develop a multi- or interdisciplinary research program examining the neural basis of the acquisition, refinement, maintenance and impairment of literacy skills. The candidate will possess expertise in a range of innovative research methodologies, including neuroimaging and functional brain network mapping approaches, to advance the foundational neuroscience knowledge underlying literacy skills. We are seeking an individual with an outstanding record of research accomplishments, a vibrant and growing research program, and acknowledgement by peers as an emerging leader in the neuroscience of literacy. A successful record of Tri-Agency funding is desirable. The successful candidate will propose an innovative program of high-quality research that is consistent with the Faculty and University strategic plans, attract external funding and excellent, well qualified and diverse graduate students.

Tier 2 Canada Research Chairs are intended for exceptional emerging scholars (i.e. candidates must have been an active researcher in their field for fewer than 10 years at the time of nomination). Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree and have experienced legitimate career interruptions (including maternity or parental leave, extended sick leave, clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier 2 Chair assessed through the program's Tier 2 justification process. Please consult the University of Alberta CRC Coordinator (glen.thomas@ualberta.ca) for more information. Full program information, including details on eligibility criteria, can be found on the Canada Research Chairs website: <http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/home-accueil-eng.aspx>.

The University of Alberta recognizes the legitimate impact that leaves (e.g., parental leave, leave due to illness) can have on a candidate's record of research achievement and that these leaves will be taken into careful consideration during the assessment process.

The successful applicant will be nominated for a Tier 2 Canada Research Chair. Nominations are subject to review by the CRC Secretariat, and appointment as a Canada Research Chair is conditional upon their approval.

The closing date for applications is June 27, 2019. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, priority will be given to University of Alberta Employees. Only those applicants invited for an interview will be contacted.

To apply:

1. All applicants to this job posting are required to self-identify using the following questionnaire
2. Email (a) a current CV, (b) a two-page description of the proposed research program (references may be appended to the program overview), (c) one-page description of proposed training strategies (e.g. graduates students and other trainees), and up to three reprints of recent research articles to:

Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC) in Indigenous Governance

Faculty of Native Studies

Competition No. - A115739130

Closing Date - Jun 28, 2019

The Faculty of Native Studies at the University of Alberta invites applications for a Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC) in Indigenous Governance. Tier 2 Chairs are for exceptional emerging researchers, acknowledged by their peers as having the potential to lead in their field. The successful candidate will take up a tenure-stream appointment and lead an excellent and innovative program of research that applies a community-engaged lens to the study of Indigenous governance in society.

Please note that this is an internal search open only to faculty members in the Faculty of Native Studies, University of Alberta.

The Faculty of Native Studies is searching for a candidate that will:

- Be an outstanding scholar whose exceptional track record of research and/or creative outputs is serving to establish them as a leader in their field.
- Candidates should have a PhD or relevant terminal degree in an appropriate discipline.
- Have demonstrated the potential to achieve international recognition in their fields in the next five to ten years.
- Be a builder with a commitment to leading research collaborations and an emerging reputation for attracting and mentoring graduate students.
- Be committed to impactful research with real potential to benefit relevant scholarly communities and society.
- Have an established track record of obtaining external research grants.
- Be prepared to develop an application that articulates an original and ground-breaking program of future research.
- Responsibilities will include undergraduate and graduate teaching, graduate supervision and normal administrative service, as well as maintaining an original and innovative research program. The Faculty member's teaching load will, during the tenure of their CRC, be two one-term courses per year instead of the four one-term courses per year for regular faculty. Once the Canada Research Chair commences, the Chairholder will receive a research allowance and supports from the Faculty and have access to a supplement that may be taken as a taxable salary or tax-free research grant, or a combination thereof.

Tier 2 CRCs, which are tenable for five years and renewable once, are intended for exceptional emerging researchers (i.e., candidates must have been an active researcher in their field for fewer than 10 years at the time of nomination). Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (and where career breaks exist, such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave, clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier 2 Chair assessed through the program's Tier 2 justification process. Please consult the University of Alberta CRC Coordinator (glen.thomas@ualberta.ca) for more information. Full program information, including details on eligibility criteria, can be found on the Canada Research Chairs website: <http://www.chairs-chaires.gc.ca/home-accueil-eng.aspx>.

The University recognizes that legitimate impact that leaves (e.g., parental leave, leave due to illness) can have on a candidate's record of research and achievement and commits that these leaves will be taken into careful consideration during the assessment process.

In accordance with the CRC Program's Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Practices (see below) and the University of Alberta's related Action Plan (also see below), applications are particularly encouraged from women, persons with disabilities, Indigenous Peoples, and visible minorities. In this competition, preference will be given to applications from Indigenous Peoples.

UAlberta EDI Action Plan: <https://www.ualberta.ca/research/services/funding-opportunities/canada-research-chairs/public-accountability>

The successful applicant will maintain their appointment as a regular continuing faculty member and will be nominated by the University for a Canada Research Chair. All CRC nominations are subject to approval by UAlberta's President's Advisory Committee for Senior Academic Appointments, and University nominations are subject to the approval of the Canada Research Chair Program. Please consult the Canada Research Chairs website for full program information, including further details on eligibility criteria.

The Faculty will work with the successful candidate to complete their CRC application. Once completed and approved by internal processes, the final application will be submitted to the CRC Program for final approval, after which the new Chairholder will take up their CRC.

For questions related to this position, the Canada Research Chair (CRC) selection process or issues regarding institutional accommodation policies, please contact Dr. Chris Andersen, professor and Dean of the Faculty of Native Studies. Emails may be sent to NSDEAN@UALBERTA.CA.

To assist the University in complying with mandatory reporting requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (R203(3) (e)), please include the first digit of your Canadian Social Insurance Number in your application. If you do not have a Canadian Social Insurance Number, please indicate this in your application.

How to Apply:

- A) All applicants to this job posting are required to self-identify using the following questionnaire.
- B) To apply, applicants must submit the following through UAlberta's online application system ("Apply Online" button below):
- A letter describing their interest in the position and their qualifications
 - An outline of their research plans as the holder of a Tier 2 CRC (not more 2,000 words)
 - A full Curriculum Vitae
- C) Applicants are further expected to arrange to have three letters of reference sent to the attention of Dr. Chris Andersen, Dean, Faculty of Native Studies. These letters should be submitted via e-mail to NSDEAN@UALBERTA.CA. Please ask that referees enter "Reference Letter –Tier 2 CRC in Indigenous Governance" in the subject line.

Applicants whom require an accessibility arrangement for their application, interview, and/or subsequent recruitment meetings can contact Catherine Anley (Senior Consultant Equity, Diversity and Inclusion) at catherine.anley@ualberta.ca or 780.492.3020 to arrange appropriate accommodations.

Tier 2 Canada Research Chair

Dean Of Science

Competition No. - A104839792
Closing Date - Sep 09, 2019

This opportunity is open only to current employees of the Faculty of Science of the University of Alberta.

The Faculty of Science at the University of Alberta plans to nominate one or more candidates for an open Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC) position. We are seeking researchers who will advance the Faculty's goals of diversity in our CRC cohort and faculty renewal in our strategic research areas. Specifically, preference will be given to applicants who are members of visible minorities or Indigenous persons.

The selected candidate(s) will be tenure-track or tenured Assistant or Associate Professors in the Faculty of Science. Tier 2 CRCs are intended for exceptional emerging researchers, acknowledged by their peers as having the potential to lead in their field. They are tenable for five years and are renewable once. Candidates must have been active researchers in their field for less than 10 years at the time of nomination. Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (and where career breaks exist, such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave) may have their eligibility for a Chair assessed through the program's Tier 2 justification process. For full program information, including details on eligibility criteria, please consult the University of Alberta CRC Coordinator or the Canada Research Chairs website: <http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/home-accueil-eng.aspx>) for full program information.

The University of Alberta recognizes the legitimate impact that leaves (e.g., parental leave, leave due to illness) can have on a candidate's record of research achievement and that these leaves will be taken into careful consideration during the assessment process.

Consistent with the CRC Program's Equity, Diversity and Inclusion ("EDI") Practices (<http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/program-programme/equity-equite/index-eng.aspx>) and the University of Alberta's EDI Action Plan (<https://www.ualberta.ca/research/services/funding-opportunities/canada-research-chairs/ualberta-action-plan>) the University encourages applications from women, members of racialized communities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, persons of all sexual orientations and genders, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

The successful applicant(s) will be nominated for a Tier 2 Canada Research Chair. Nominations are subject to review by the CRC Secretariat, and appointment as a Canada Research Chair is conditional upon their approval.

To assist the University in complying with mandatory reporting requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (R203(3) (e)), please include the first digit of your Canadian Social Insurance Number in your application. If you do not have a Canadian Social Insurance Number, please indicate this in your application.

How to Apply

1. All applicants to this job posting are required to self-identify using the following questionnaire
2. To apply, candidates should submit a current CV, including a one-page description of the proposed CRC Tier 2 research program via the email address listed below, by September 9, 2019. Questions about this competition, should be sent electronically to Fred West, Vice Dean of Science at vicedsci@ualberta.ca

Applicants who require an accessibility arrangement for their interview and/or subsequent recruitment meetings may contact Catherine Anley (Senior Consultant Equity, Diversity and Inclusion) at catherine.anley@ualberta.ca or 780-492-3020 to arrange appropriate accommodations.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. If suitable Canadian citizens or permanent residents cannot be found, other individuals will be considered.

The University of Alberta is committed to an equitable, diverse, and inclusive workforce. We welcome applications from all qualified persons. We encourage women; First Nations, Métis and Inuit persons; members of visible minority groups; persons with disabilities; persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity and expression; and all those who may contribute to the further diversification of both ideas and the University to apply.

EDI Public Transparency Statement

The University of Alberta intends to nominate an individual for an NSERC CRC Tier 2 using the emergency retention mechanism.

The individual has received an offer from another Canadian university as a CRC Tier 2 nominee. This individual's research is important to the University's strategic research priorities in science, technology, and the environment. The emergency retention mechanism will be used to match the competitive offer from the other university.

The University of Alberta has taken its equity and diversity targets into consideration for this decision.

This transparency statement has been posted to fulfill the requirements of the Canada Research Chairs Program (<http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/program-programme/equity-equite/recruitment-recrutement-eng.aspx>, section 8).

This very exceptional circumstance was examined and approved by the University of Alberta's CRC Allocation Committee composed of Dr. Wendy Rodgers, Deputy Provost (wendy.rodgers@ualberta.ca); Dr. Steve Dew, Provost & Vice President (Academic) (steve.dew@ualberta.ca); and Dr. Matthias Ruth Vice President of Research and Innovation (matthias.ruth@ualberta.ca).

For questions or concerns regarding this nomination, please contact Dr. Wendy Rodgers, Deputy Provost. The email address for Dr. Rodgers is wendy.rodgers@ualberta.ca.
