

Life @ SJC

"Catholic education is above all a question of communicating Christ, of helping to form Christ in the lives of others."

- Pope John Paul II

Women's Residence Sprinkler Leak

On the afternoon of Sunday, February 10, 2019, a sprinkler head in one of the SJC women's residence rooms caused a significant water leak in the residence. Initially, all the residents were evacuated from the building, but many were able to return later that night and the vast majority were back in the residence by the following week.

Ash Wednesday at SJC

Ash Wednesday is the beginning of Lent. Many churches have special services at which the priest marks the sign of the cross on the forehead of the faithful with ashes, accompanied by the words, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

The Ash Wednesday service at SJC was well-attended as students, staff and others came to receive the mark of the cross for all to see.

Christianity in its Contexts

"Christianity in its Contexts" is an interdisciplinary undergraduate conference taking place on Saturday May 11, 2019 at St. Joseph's College.

Undergraduates from a variety of disciplines are invited to present their research on Christianity in any of its contexts: history, theology, sociology, literature, economics, cultural studies, the fine arts, education, and the health sciences, among others.

Whether you want to present a paper or just attend, read more here.

Proposals are due by 12 April 2019.

Soup's On Us!

Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, SJC is able to offer free hot lunches to students twice a month, when we serve hot, homemade soup fresh from our kitchen, fresh buns and something sweet. For a list of dates and times, whether you are a student or a potential sponsor, see our website.

Worship at SJC

"Teach us to give and not count the cost."
